The Secretary of the Commonwealth is not permitted to make public names of candidates for office, since the composition of the official ballot must be kept secret. But from party nominations at declarations of aspirants, the following is the list of candidates for Congress in Virginia, to be voted on in November.

Second District—E. B. Holland, of Suffolk, Democrat; N. T. Green, of Norfolk, Progressive; B. L. Downey, of Portsmouth, Socialist.

Pennsylvania to soldiers of the War Between the States.

To-night the Governor will leave for New York, where he will enter into the Wilson-Marshall campaign. He expects to be absent about two weeks, speaking at various appointments arranged for him in New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut. He is chock full of Democratic material, and is ready for the fray.

Educational Force Busy.

The office of the Co-Operative Education Association at the Capitol is a busy place these days. Hundreds of circulars are being sent out concerning Patron's Day by Miss Douglas Wright, the office secretary, when she is not answering numerous inquiries regarding the coming Virginia Educational Conference, school improvement leagues and other such matters the teachers are interested in.

Mrs. L. E. Dashiell is engaged in field work in Shenandoah County this week, while executive secretary J. H. Binford is organizing leagues and addressing teachers and school patrons in Halifax, Campbell and Pittsylvania Counties.

Colonel Leedy Representative.

The Governor has appointed Colonel R. S. Leedy, of Luray, to represent him at the unveiling of the monument at Saratoga, N. Y.

New Courthouse Proposed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Va., October 16.—Tazewell County expects to have a handsome new courthouse in the near future. A committee recently appointed to consider the matter of remodeling and enlarging the present building reported in favor of erecting a new building at a cost of $15,000. This idea is a popular one, and it is believed that it will meet with general approval in the county. Tazewell, because of its wealth of coal and its fine grazing lands, is one of the wealthiest counties naturally in Southwest Virginia.

Grizzle, formerly in Young Men's Christian Association work in Richmond, and later in charge of the work here, but for two years in charge of the work in the State at large in Tennessee, has now been elected secretary of the Memphis Young Men's Christian Association and will accept. He is a native of West Tennessee.

EVERY MAN GAVE TO CAMPAIGN FUND

Town of Dublin Sends Contribution With Greeting to Woodrow Wilson.

From the little town of Dublin, in Pulaski County, comes a contribution of $25 for the Wilson-Marshall campaign fund. The striking feature of this gift is the spirit in which it is given.

J. M. Weiser is the collector. Transmitting the fund, he makes the point that many are willing to give everywhere who have never been asked. He had not contributed to campaign fund for years, feeling certain that at least a part would be used corruptly, but he felt the opportunity to help when convinced that every penny will be rightly used. But no collector appeared in Dublin, and writing a letter with his small check looked ineffectual. Yet the insistent appeal of The Times-Dispatch kept ringing in Mr. Weiser's ears. So he asked his fellow-employees with the Appalachian Power Company, in the office and the field, to join him, and every man responded, making a total of $25.00. Then Mr. Weiser saw other people in the town, getting $12.50 more. Many, he finds, have contributed direct, making the total from a town of 350 people exceed the quota.

"The best town of its size on the map," says the letter of transmittal, "gushes greeting to Virginia's distinguished son, Woodrow Wilson, and earnestly wishes to help make the next President of the United States, and to that end send the campaign contributions listed below, contributions from the people, with no axes to grind, no favors to ask, no offers in view, present or prospective; contributions with no taint of selfish interest, no service, no individual or corporate, no contributions constituting a bribe, no offerings, and not one of them asked for twice; every dollar sanctified by an abiding faith in the justice and righteousness of the cause it is intended to help, and the belief and wish alike that every dollar will be used only to a just and righteous end."

SUIT AGAINST RAILWAY

Appeal Taken and Allowed From
Sanville Court—One Is Refused.
The Supreme Court of Appeals allowed a writ of error yesterday to J. A. Boyd in his suit against the Southern Railway Company, on an appeal from the Corporation Court of the city of Danville. While on the tracks of the company, at what was claimed to be a public crossing, Boyd was struck and suffered a crushed foot. The jury gave him $5,000 in damages, subject to a demurrer to the evidence. Judge J. N. Allen, then sitting, did not decide, which afterwards led to his retirement, but Judge E. J. Harvey, presiding by the Governor's appointment, sustained the demurrer. From this judgment Boyd appeals.

The court refused an appeal to Leo Judson, trustee, Joseph H. Hewitt and B. A. Banks in the suit against them of W. A. Jackson, from the Circuit Court of the city of Norfolk. The case involves the legality of the sale of certain stock which was put up as security for a loan made by Hewitt to Jackson. It involves $5,150.

Miss Lenah H. Mardress Has Been Sleeping Since October 3.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., October 16.—Miss Lenah H. Mardress came to this city October 3 to visit her sister, Mrs. Battelle Martin. Soon after her arrival she was affected in a peculiar way, becoming drowsy and sinking into an insensible sleep. Since then she has not opened her eyes, cannot stand or sit, though times she apparently understands what is going on about her and what is being said to her. Physicians have been called to see her, but her case baffles their skill.

Rev. R. H. Viser, a graduate of Fredericksburg College, and until recently a resident of this city, has accepted a call to the Presbyterian Church at Hampton. Mr. Viser is a gifted young man, and will make his mark in his chosen field. He had had charge of a church at Piedmont, W. Va., for a short time.

Dr. John F. French, of New York, a son of the late Seth B. French and former resident of this city, where on a visit to relatives and friends, and with a number of the latter has opened a fishing camp on the Rappahannock River eight miles above this city, where two weeks will be spent in camp, enjoying fishing and the outdoor life. This is an annual custom with Dr. French.

E. J. Widness, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has sold 351 acres of timber land in Spotsylvania County, near McHenry, to M. H. Tickinson, for $3,300.

"Old Queen," the old family horse of the Little family, died yesterday at "Borebel," in Stafford County, near this city, after having reached an age of forty years. The animal had been used by W. A. Little, Jr. and W. A. Little, Sr., both now dead, and when "Borebel" was now dead, the animal was purchased by Charles H. Hurstman, along with the farm, and he has cared for the faithful old animal since that time.

TAKE UP BIDS AT SPECIAL MEETING

Question of Sale of Light and Power Franchise to Be Heard on October 23.

At a meeting to be held on Wednesday, October 23, at 8 P. M., the Council Committee on Streets will take up as special business the two bids submitted for a light and power franchise. Before the committee yesterday, Charles V. Meredith, representing the Richmond and Henrico Railway, which sought and worked for the franchise, briefly urged immediate consideration of the question, objecting to reference to a subcommittee. Judge George L. Christian, counsel for Arthur Lipper & Co., of New York, who submitted a bid, said his clients were responsible people, bidding in good faith for a right they proposed to exercise, and if the committee was not fully convinced of the good faith of the bidder he asked that reasonable time be taken for a thorough investigation.

The application of the Virginia Railway and Power Company for track extensions west of the Boulevard, recommended by the old committee, but not consummated when the Council expired, was referred to a subcommittee consisting of Messrs. Pollock, Nelson and Mills. The matter of the proposed suburban loop down Seventh Street and up Eighth, recommended by the Council at the request of Mr. Powell, was made the special order for the next regular meeting of the committee and Mr. Powell was notified.

Reports indicated that track reconstruction work had been begun with a good force on Robinson Street, that actual paving was in progress on Broad Street, and that paving, though still with a small force, was in progress on Main Street between Fifth and Seventh Streets.

L. W. Wise and others were before the committee in reference to a building line on the south side of Franklin Street, between Laurel and Shaffer Streets. A year or more ago the committee established a line twenty-five feet back from the street, at request of property owners. It appears that none of the houses on the street conform to this line, some of them being much nearer the street. The Monroe Terrace Company, which will erect a large apartment house at Laurel and Franklin Streets, has requested that this line be changed to twenty feet back from the street, at request of property owners.
